The image displays a collection of industrial components, likely a pressure washer or similar cleaning equipment. The main component is a blue, L-shaped body with a black cylindrical nozzle attached to the top. A label on the side of the blue body reads "EPA 60500" and "EPA 60500". Below the main body is a black rectangular component, possibly a trigger gun or a spray lance. To the left of the black component are two long, silver-colored metal rods. To the right of the black component are several small, black and silver-colored components, including O-rings, washers, and nuts.
